BRITISH TAEKWONDO COUNCIL

TAEKWONDO GUIDE FOR PARENTS & CARERS

What can your child expect from learning Taekwondo

A safe friendly and enjoyable environment for all children and young people regardless of their age.

Have fun and a sense of achievement from learning a martial art

Encourage a disciplined and healthy lifestyle

Develop their skills and abilities such as discipline, confidence, self esteem

How do I know my child will be treated fairly

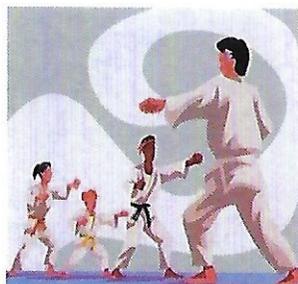

The British Taekwondo Council have a range of policies and procedures in place that will ensure that your child will be treated with the respect that they deserve.

All children and young people will be treated equally whatever their race, gender, age, religion, sexual orientation, social or cultural background.

The club as a member of the British Taekwondo Council will have a Safeguarding Policy (Child Protection) this will outline its responsibilities to Child Protection by adopting the best practice to help safeguard children from potential abuse within Taekwondo.

Every club will have a Club Welfare Officer who will deal with any concerns regarding your child's welfare, should you as a parent or carer have any concerns or questions the Club Welfare Officer should be your first point of contact.

If the Club Welfare Officer cannot deal with your concern or your concern is about anybody in the club, please contact the BTC Lead Safeguarding Officer, Tel. No 0151 424 9466.

How can I help to ensure my child enjoys and gets the most out of practicing Taekwondo

Be a parent not another coach.

Remember that children train for their fun not yours.

Encourage your child to train do not force them.

Take an interest, learn the rules.

Do not be afraid to ask questions.

Praise your child's efforts and achievements.

Do not be a stranger, meet and socialise with other parents.

Respect the Instructors decisions, remember he/she is only human.

Do not criticise other students.

Advise Instructor/Club Welfare Officer of any medical conditions, and make sure club has your emergency contact Tel No.

Talk to your child about training and make sure they are enjoying it.

Remember Taekwondo is a family sport, share your child's experience join them in training
